

Program Snapshot

	Tuesday 31 January	Wednesday 1 February	Thursday 2 February	Friday 3 February	Saturday 4 February
8.00am	Registration Opens	Registration Opens
8.30am		Registration Opens
9.00am		Opening sessions of the 8th ICCS	Session 5: Understanding flavour and aroma in cool climate grapes and wine	Session 7: Cool climate varieties and styles	Viticulture Colloquium (morning tea included)
9.30am
10.00am		Morning tea (trade exhibition and poster display)
10.30am		Session 2: Managing vineyard visibility	Session 6: Sustainability – an emerging trend and future challenge	Session 8: Selling the cool climate story
11.00am
11.30am		Lunch (trade exhibition and poster display)
12.00pm		Lunch (trade exhibition and poster display)
12.30pm		Lunch (trade exhibition and poster display)
1.00pm	Lunch (trade exhibition and poster display)
1.30pm	Registration Opens	Session 3: Making it and tasting it	Concurrent workshops*
2.00pm			Zero to 200+ (tasting)	Taming the Pinot Noir terroir (tasting)	It's all to do with the technique and timing (spraying efficiency)
2.30pm	Concurrent workshops*					Have you considered hybrid grape cultivars?
3.00pm	Buses from ICCS venue to MONA	Afternoon tea (trade exhibition and poster display)	Can Tasmanian Pinot Noir compete successfully on the world stage? (tasting)	Bubbles from three continents (tasting)	Tours depart for southern, eastern and northern Tasmanian vineyards. Details coming!
3.30pm	Exclusive viewing of the Museum of Old & New Art (MONA) galleries	Session 4: Sparkling wines – Old World and New World	Can we produce better Pinot Noir and sparkling wine?	Building vineyard biodiversity for improved wine quality and business profitability
4.00pm
4.30pm
5.00pm
5.30pm	Tasmanian Wine Show Tasting (ICCS delegates only)
6.00pm	Welcome to function: Tasmanian wines & canapés at Moorilla Winery (adjacent MONA)	Hobart restaurant showcase – details coming!	Gala dinner: Tasmanian wine and food extravaganza (to 11.30pm)
6.30pm
7.00pm	Gala dinner: Tasmanian wine and food extravaganza (to 11.30pm)
7.30pm	Gala dinner: Tasmanian wine and food extravaganza (to 11.30pm)
8.00pm	Gala dinner: Tasmanian wine and food extravaganza (to 11.30pm)

Legend

- Free time
- Breaks

- Plenary sessions

- Networking activities

*Workshops: independently costed; delegates should preregister. Afternoon tea provided.